Minutes of the February 23, 1989 meeting held in Clinton

The meeting was called to order at 8:05 pm. with a salute to the flag.

Minutes of the Annual meeting in Chester were read. MMS to accept as read. S/V.

Treasurers report: A balance of $9750.89 to date. Dues were deposited from DR, WB, OS, KW, CL, CH, and MA.

Reports of Committees: Radio- nothing to report. By-Laws- nothing to report. Training- will try again in Deep River to have a Training officers meeting at 7:30 pm on March 23rd before the regular meeting.

Haddam will host a FF1 in late May for the college kids.
Chester will host a FF1 in June. The Fire Service Instructors class in Essex has started and is going very well. Also Essex will host a Level 2 tanker shuttle drill in May off Mares Hill rd.

Seminar- Two houses have been found to do live burns, one in Clinton and one in Old Saybrook.

Old Business- Discussion continued on ISO coming thru the towns.

New Business- Jed spoke of Chester putting a second Hurst tool in service. Also Chester will hold a Valley Shore Engineers meeting on March 16th at 7:30. Middlesex County Chiefs is looking for area departments to hold monthly meetings, contact John Dowling.

Interest- Don Johnson spoke of Lt. Fields will attend the Deep River meeting to work closely with the area towns.

Don Sem has taken over the training tower in Middletown, and it is open to all towns for training.

Discussion followed on help during the day and which departments have regular members that belong to more than one department. Jim Budney suggested we continue this discussion to next month and look at our mutual aid agreements.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 pm. Next meeting to be in Deep River on March 23rd.

Respectively submitted,
Greg Scott, sect/treas.
Don Johnson, president
