MINUTES OF THE MAY 20, 1996 MEETING HELD IN GUILFORD

The meeting was called to order by Vice President Murphy at 20:05 hours with six of the twelve towns represented.

Minutes of the April 22, 1996 meeting were read. MMS to accept as read. S/V.

Secretary Scott was not present so the Treasurers report was not available.

Reports of Committees:

Training: Quarterly meeting was scheduled for may 20 in Guilford Phil Demond was the only person present. No meeting was held. If Department interest does not pick up, no V.S.M.A training meetings will be held. Vice President Murphy suggested the secretary send out postcards announcing training meetings one week in advance. this was agreed upon by the members present. Next training meeting will be held in Killingworth on June 24, 1996 at 19:00 hours. Phil needs names, addresses, and phone #'s of all training officers and assts.

Tanker Committee: The committee had a meeting in Chester and discussed their intensions to include levels of response including geographical responses. Trainig for all V.S.M.A. depar tment will be made available especially to those departments without tankers so that all departments will know what is expected when a tanker shuttle is used. 1500 gallons and up is considered a tanker. The next meeting is scheduled for June 20th at 19:30 hours in Old Saybrook.

Brush Fire Committee: The committee is waiting for information from the state, concerning activation of the Brush Fire Team and equipment to be used.

Engineers Committee: The committee discussed new equipment, inventory sheets and changes to inventories. John Divis will announce next meeting date and times.

Old Business: none

New Business: none

Interest to Organization: Incident Command guide lines were discussed. Changes conforming to National level may be needed. Copies of V.S.M.A. I.C.S. needed for the June meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 20:30 hours.
Respectively submitted, Pat Murphy Vice President.

Next meeting in Killingworth on June 24, 1996 at 20:00 hrs with a Training Committee meeting held at 1900 hrs before it.
