Minutes of Valley Shore meeting

9/24/01

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 PM by president Bauer. There were 7 towns represented at the meeting. There were no minutes of the August meeting read.

The treasurer's report was the same as the previous month. There were no bills presented.

Committees: Seminar, tickets are printed and were handed out to all but 2 towns for distribution to their members. Flyers are printed and being mailed to all towns. Everything is ready to go.

Sops: modifications made and handed out. Jed Perkins made a motion to accept all sops. Seconded by Charlie Hershaff, motion carried.

Discussion on radio traffic. It was emphasized to use radio signals by all, especially when on scene of a mutual aid call where multiple trucks may have the same engine number.

Discussion held on fundraisers for FDNY, which funds are real, collection methods and fundraisers being organized by the state.

Interest of the company: Chester tanker is in the Peterbuilt service center, it will be in service in the later part of October.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Don Johnson
Secretary Pro-tem
